THE DRAGOON DIES AT HAWTHORNE.

Jockey Mitchell was the cause of an ugly-looking accident at Hawthorne yesterday that resulted in the death of The Dragoon, a bad fall for Kisme, and came within an ace of killing jockeys Vittoe and Sheppard.

The mix-up occurred directly in front of the stand, midway between the eighth and sixteenth posts, and consequently in full view of the crowd. Kisme was the first one to go down and when The Dragoon turned a somersault over her the occupants of the stand screamed with fright.

When the dust cleared away jockeys Vittoe and Sheppard lay motionless and for an instant it looked as though both had been killed. About ten feet away from the boys The Dragoon lay dead with a broken neck.

Sheppard was just stunned and was soon able to walk to the dressing room. Vittoe, however, was badly shaken up and was carried away from the track unconscious.

Here is how the accident happened. Defender II. was racing in front close to the rail. Next to him was Etholin and lapped on him were Kisme and Lillian Reed. At the head of the stretch Tillie W. started to move up rapidly on the outside, and Mitchell, over-anxious to win a race, let the filly's head drop and went to his whip. This made Tillie W. swerve, and before Mitchell could straighten her out, she collided with Kisme and she in turn bumped into Etholin. The horses were all together and in the jam Kisme got her feet tangled and fell. The Dragoon took a header over her. Mitchell went on with Tillie W. and won the race from Defender II., with Etholin, who went to his knees in the jam, third. Foul was claimed against Mitchell and Tillie W. by Jones, who rode Etholin, but it was not allowed.

Barring the accident the day's sport was ideal. Close finishes were the order and every winning horse was pressed to the limit.

Salvable's victory and Tommy Burns' excellent ride on him was the best bit of racing. Salvable ran in that popular owner Pat Dunne's name but in Louis Ezell's colors. He looked fit and good and all the "knowing ones" said that he was ready. Consequently he was backed from 2 to 1 down to 7 to 5. Those who thought Salvable was ready were far from being correct. Burns never rode a better race. He got a running start and then placed the horse, who was quite rank, cleverly in behind Found. After going the first half mile Burns moved up and felt of Found, and seeing that he held her safe he then turned his attention to Great Bend who was lying third. The wily Tommy went a bit wice on the far turn inviting Vittoe, who rode Great Bend, up into a pocket. Vittoe bit nicely and when he was half way through Burns pulled in on him and sharply shut him off. This naturally caused Vittoe to take back and incidentally cost him the race, for by the time Great Bend got into his stride again Salvable was far away with a winning lead. Through the stretch Salvable got very tired but by clever hand riding Burns managed to nurse him along and landed a neck in front of Great Bend, who finished very strong. It was a pretty contest and Burns and Salvable came in for a hearty round of applause.

Defiance and Maurice W. had a battle royal for first place in the last race. The pair hooked up at the head of the stretch and from there to the stand fought hard for every inch of ground. Dugan probably outrode Nate Hill a trifle and Defiance got the verdict by a nose.

Fidel Youlin at 30 to 1 proved to be the lucky one of the seventeen maidens that started in the first race and she won in a drive by three-quarters of a length from The Lady.

Considerable speed was centered in the second race, at three-quarters of a mile, and Sly, well handled by Nate Hill, won driving by a length from H. S. Tobacco. The first part of this race was run very fast. Harry Duke and H. S. Tobacco stepped the half in 48½ seconds and the five furlongs in 1:01½. This cooked Harry Duke's goose, and he eventually finished last.

W. Dean managed to get Erla d'Or off in front in the five and one-half furlongs two-year-old race, and, keeping her in a good position the entire route, managed to make her win after a fierce drive from Yoloco. The latter was pocketed and generally poorly handled. Otherwise he would have won. He finished very strong.

After winning the last race Defiance was run up $100 over his entered price of $200 by O. P. Romigh. Pat Civill let him go for the $300.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Indian Fairy's success in the rich Matron Stakes at Morris Park yesterday led to much congratulation among the friends and followers of the leading Chicago stables, although it was a surprise. Popular expectation was that Windmere would be the instrument of success if the stable was to win. Indian Fairy is a chestnut filly by the dead sire Iroquois—Fairy, and Fairy was one of the fleetest mares that ever ran in this country. Up to her signal triumph yesterday there was nothing to indicate that Indian Fairy was equal to winning in such company, her only previous success having been the capture of a purse race for maiden fillies at Gravesend, September 23. Before that she had started in four races without success, running second once, third once and twice unplaced. The two placed horses in the Futurity that ran in the Matron, Brigadier and Windmere, by running unplaced in the latter, cast discredit on the form of the richest of all our events for two-year-olds.

CALIFORNIA TURF GOSSIP.

Of local track topics the San Francisco Chronicle of last Friday says:

"Tom Magee reached here yesterday with the Corrigan horses. The horses ready to race include Corsini, Golden Rule, Adolph Spreckels, Wallenstein, Joe Magee, Sam Howard and St. Anthony. Basseda was left in the east and Cabrillo was disposed of. In the car were two yearlings, one by Fonso and the other by Masetto, sire of Waring. The fourteen brood mares and the stallion Riley also came in charge of Magee. Riley is a promising sire by Longfellow—Geneva, by War Dance. Among the brood mares are Can't Dance, dam of Won't Dance; Hinda, dam of Corsini; Hattie Harris, dam of Joe Ullman; Roseta, sister to Captain Rees; Zenobia, who used to run at the Bay District track, and Connie B.

"William Murry is back from his eastern campaign with Flamora, Tarhill, Kickumbob and Teppins. The latter is a mare by Tenny, for whom he exchanged Three Forks. Murry has Buckwa, Red Glenn, Casdale and half a dozen others at Sacramento, which will be brought down very soon. Murry also brought out Dr. Sharp for Don Cameron.

"Princess Zeika, who won in such game fashion yesterday, is by Roy del Sierras, the last son of Joe Hooker and Marion. He was never raced. Princess Zeika is a half-sister to Don Jose, whom Theodore Winters once expected to capture the American Derby.

"James Walsh scored his first win yesterday on Afamada. This little fellow, who was here last winter with Landsberg, is now connected with the stable of P. Ryan and will be given a chance to develop into a good jockey.

"Eddie Jones will leave for Byron Springs today. He is out of condition and will have to take a week's lay-off.

"Although never reported, Prompto died at the St. Louis track some time ago."

IMP'S CAMPAIGN.

When Imp won the Oriental Handicap at Gravesend last Saturday, it was said that she would be raced no more this year. This is evidently the belief at Chillicothe. A dispatch from that quiet little city to the Cincinnati Enquirer of Monday, said:

"That peerless little racing mare Imp closed her season yesterday at Sheephead Bay, and if present plans are carried out will reach home Wednesday to spend the winter on the Brosman farm, east of town. Elaborate preparations are being made for her reception, which will be the biggest thing of the kind that has ever taken place here. A brass band has been engaged to head the procession, and following it will come Imp, decorated with wreaths and flowers. Following her will come a number of open carriages, occupied by her owner, trainer and prominent horsemen here, and Imp's brother, Crusader who is expected to be one of the sensations of next season, will come next. Other fast horses will be in the procession, which will be closed by a float bearing the immense floral horseshoes presented to 'Uncle' Dan Harness by the Coney Island Jockey Club. The procession will proceed through the principal streets, and there will be a number of addresses by well-known men. It is suggested that Imp be taken to the fair ground track and put through a trial performance, the proceeds to go to the City Hospital, but it is not known positively whether this will be done.

"Imp's record for the past season has been a phenomenal one, and her winnings have aggregated $30,000. Even if she is retired from the turf with this season, her record is one that has never been approached. She is yet in her prime, being only five years old, and should be able to develop greater endurance than ever next season, but her owner is in favor of keeping her at home for breeding purposes, in the belief that her get could sweep all the tracks in the country in a few years. Her trainer, Mr. Charles Brosman, it is understood, is in favor of taking her to England next year to compete in the big races there, and no decision will be finally reached until he arrives here and the matter can be thoroughly discussed. The formal reception to Imp will probably take place Thursday afternoon, although it may be postponed to Saturday, when all her country admirers can come to town to see her. The line of march will be decorated in her honor, and every effort will be made to render her reception worthy of the greatest racehorse of the season."

The proposed celebration is something unique and amusing but probably any other rural community would take an equal measure of pride in the local possession of such a famous horse.

Imp, this year, has started in thirty-one races, of which she has won thirteen, been second in three, third in six and unplaced in nine. Her total net winnings for the season are $30,475. Her first start was at Washington, D. C., April 8, and she ran unplaced to Beau Ideal, Imperator and Alice Farley. April 12 she won a purse at a mile and a sixteenth with Alice Farley second. Then she was taken to New York and was beaten in six consecutive races before she scored. Her first success was in a purse race at Morris Park for which she defeated Glonoin and other platers. Then with 110 pounds up she was started for the Brooklyn Handicap, and finished next to last. She now began to improve, and before the meeting closed pulled off two purse races in fast time from fair horses. In her next essay she electrified the racing world by winning the Suburban Handicap, setting a new record for the race and up-setting the idea that a mare could not win that particular race. She carried but 114 pounds. In her next four essays she was beaten, but on the opening day at Brighton Beach she won the Brighton Handicap from Ethelbert, Bangle and other good ones, doing the mile and a quarter in 2:05½, with 115 pounds in the saddle. This was her richest stake success, the event netting $8,420. After that Imp was topweight in all handicaps and that honored her to accumulate some defeats, but she contrived to win the Islip Stakes, Ocean Stakes, Turf Handicap, First Special, Second Special and The Oriental Handicap, and acquired the well-earned reputation of being the greatest race mare this country has ever produced. No wonder the good people of Chillicothe, O., are prepared to jubilate when she returns to her home in their midst.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A new racetrack in this vicinity is among the possibilities for the next season. The project is being engineered by C. A. Tilles, who has perfected his plans pretty well. Mr. Tilles' plans call for a first-class racing plant, the aggregate cost of which will be about $300,000. Several sites for the proposed track are under consideration, and as soon as the deal for the land is consummated the organization of the company that is to build and equip the new track will be completed.

C. A. Tilles and his partners, Sam W. Adler and Louis A. Cella, will be the leading spirits in the new enterprise, although it is Mr. Tilles' intention to try and distribute a large share of the stock in the new track among prominent western horsemen. With the prominent owners sharing in the profits of the track, Mr. Tilles and his associates feel assured of their active support. According to Mr. Tilles, the Messrs. Cahn and other well-known owners have already expressed their willingness to subscribe for stock in the new track.

"The track will be operated under the provisions of the Breeders' act, which permits ninety days of racing annually on a regulation mile track," said Mr. Tilles last night. "We believe that there is plenty of room for two tracks in St. Louis, but we have no idea of clashing with the Fair Grounds. An equal division of the racing dates is all we ask, and each track can run off its ninety days, or whatever the allotment is, between April and October. We have no fear of anti-racing legislation in Missouri. The sport is too popular with the public to permit of any further legislative tinkering with it. Winter racing and the pool-room evil were responsible for the wave of public sentiment against the sport that swept over the country several years ago. Since then the sport has been legitimized in New York, Missouri and other states. We will cater to the best horsemen in the country by offering nothing less than $400 purses and nothing but added-money stakes. Classic events will be established and we intend to add no less than $1,000 to all our stakes."

Mr. Tilles is the leading stockholder of the Little Rock racetrack and both he and his partners, Cella and Adler, were formerly identified with the South Side and Madison race-track ventures. The firm had the field book privileges at the Fair Grounds last season.—St. Louis Republic.

The principal winning owners during the Brooklyn Jockey Club's meeting which closed last Saturday at Gravesend were as follows:

Owners.	Amt.	Owners.	Amt.
Bromley & Co.	$22,710	F. D. B. and	$1,515
Oneck Stable	1,770	Eastin & Larabee	5,080

The prominence of Bromley & Co. on the successful list has been mainly due to the successes of their fine two-year-old Meemer-st.
and their improving four-year-old, Previous.
The latter raced like a rank countess for almost two seasons, but struck his exit recently and took some of the best in the all-aged division into camp.

If he can retain his present form he should be a factor in the big events for which he is eligible at Morris Park. The firm of Barnes & & Brossman got away with over $7,000 at Gravesend through the agency of their phenomenal mare Imp, who seems to improve as she goes along.

On the Westchester slopes she should do even better than at Sheephead Bay and Gravesend, and little credence is placed in the rumor that she will be retired for hwith. The great daughter of Wager—Fondling has developed into such a popular idol that her presence at the coming meeting would be a big drawing card
as well as a possible source of increased revenue to her owners. Should she be sent along for the Westchester campaign it stands to reason that she will have to shoulder heavy weight.

This was not supposed to be her forte earlier in the season, but the manner in which she hauled 128 pounds on last Saturday showed that when she is fit and "let sleep," a few pounds more or less make little difference to her. The mare is entitled to a rest but she does not seem to need one, and while she remains sound it is generally hoped that Manager
Brossman will let her go right along the line.—

Winner—B. f. by Spendthrift—Nuska.
Off at first break to a good start. The first five were driving hard. Fidel Young came from behind with a snip and rush, and from the eighth post home passed those in front as though they were tired. The Lady hung a bit at the end. She will improve with racing. Solace had plenty of speed, but weakened when the pinch came. Fannie Leland was badly pocketed from the five furlong post home. At one time it looked as though Dugan would be thrown over the fence. With clear sailing the filly would have been a keen contender. There was a general mix-up shortly after the start, in which Little Lizzie and Edna Gerry were badly interfered with.
Scratched—14526 Lady Mottle, 110.
Overweights—Little Lizzie, 2 pounds; Solace, 4.

Winner—B. m. by Racine—Aurea II.
Post 16 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; the next four were driving just as hard. Sly was cleverly saved at the post and well handled generally. She is cherry ripe just now and won like a good mare. Hill never drew his whip until the last twenty yards and then it seemed to do a lot of good. H. S. Tobacco ran a good race. He was right with and raced Harry Duke into submission in the first half. The early pace was terrific and it was no wonder that H. S. Tobacco hung when challenged at the end. Harry Duke was much used at the post but eventually got a running start. He was short. The race will do him a lot of good. Goebel ran an improved race. It seems to take him a long while to round into winning form. Bertha Nell had a very rough journey. Mitchell seems to be out of form. Mark Debride. He finished with a tremendous rush. Diser seems to be of no account.
Scratched—14839 Mazie V. 97; (14247) Mamie Lou, 102; (14788) Mocerito, 102.

Winner—B. h. by Salvatore—Lydia.
Off at first break to a fair start. Won driving; second driving hard. Salvable barely lasted long enough to win. He was not quite ready and it was only Burns' good riding that lured him. The boy got a flying start and rated the horse cleverly down the back stretch. On the far turn he resorted to foul tactics, shutting Great Bend off. This in a measure was the cause of Great Bend's defeat. Salvable, after interfering with Great Bend, stole away, and when he got to found in the stretch it looked as though he would win easily. Here lack of condition told. Burns never pulled his whip but cleverly hand rode the horse to the end. Salvable pulled up very much distressed. Found displayed dashing speed but looked high and was perhaps short. Bishop Reed ran a good race for him. So did Pacemaker, who finished stoutly. Boney Boy is nowhere near what he was this spring. He may improve with this race. Harry Nutter and Oxnard were both slow in getting away.
Overweights—Pacemaker, 2 pounds.
Salvable, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Great Bend, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Found, show, evens.

Winner—B. f. by Parsebeare—Mar ha.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second, third and fourth were ridden out. Ela O'Or got away well, to the shortest route, always had el at sailing and ran a game race. She was under the whip from the head of the stretch home. Yolo was in a nasty pocket until well into the stretch. Then he flashed strong. With clear sailing he might have won. Innovator had no excuses and did his best. Zaza had plenty of speed but the route was too far for her. When she quit she stopped as if shot. The Rush had a rough journey. Watch Basseda. She ran almost as good a race as the winner. El Caney looked dangerous on the stretch turn, but went to pieces in the run home. From a bad beginning Harmonia ran a good race.
Scratched—14770 Russell H., 101; 14689 Tom Gilmore, 101.
Ela O'Or, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Yolo, place, 24 to 1; show, evens. Innovator, show, 3 to 1. The Rush, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Iroquois—Toribera.
Off at the first break to a good start. It was a driving finish and a fluky that Tillie W won. She was swerving all over in the stretch and was the cause of Kisme and The Dragon falling. Tillie W. under the whip, swerved to the inside and before Mitchell could get her straight she had Defender II. Eltholin, Lillian Reed and Kisme crowded all in a heap on the rail. The result was that Kisme went down and The Dragon fell over her. In the fall The Dragon broke his neck. Neither of the boys was seriously hurt. Kisme was winning when she fell. In the mix-up Eltholin went to his knees. Tillie W. sh and have been disqualified, but the judges let the race stand as the horses finished. Defender II. and Eltholin both ran good races. So did Lillian Reed, who was ridden all over the track. Pat Garrett took the long route. Little Singer was short. Barataria ran a dull race.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. The first two were driving hard; third and fourth nearly as hard. Dugan outrode Hill at the end. At the furlong post Maurice W. had the race won, but at the end both Hill and the horse seemed to get tired. Dugan never gave up riding and pushing. Defiance and succeeded in getting up in the last stride. Ruskina ran a nice race and finished strong. Tension went all to pieces when the pinch came. Shotbelt made up ground throughout. The weight and distance were too much for Loyalty. Woodranger can do better.
